And he told them this parable: "There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?' He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future.

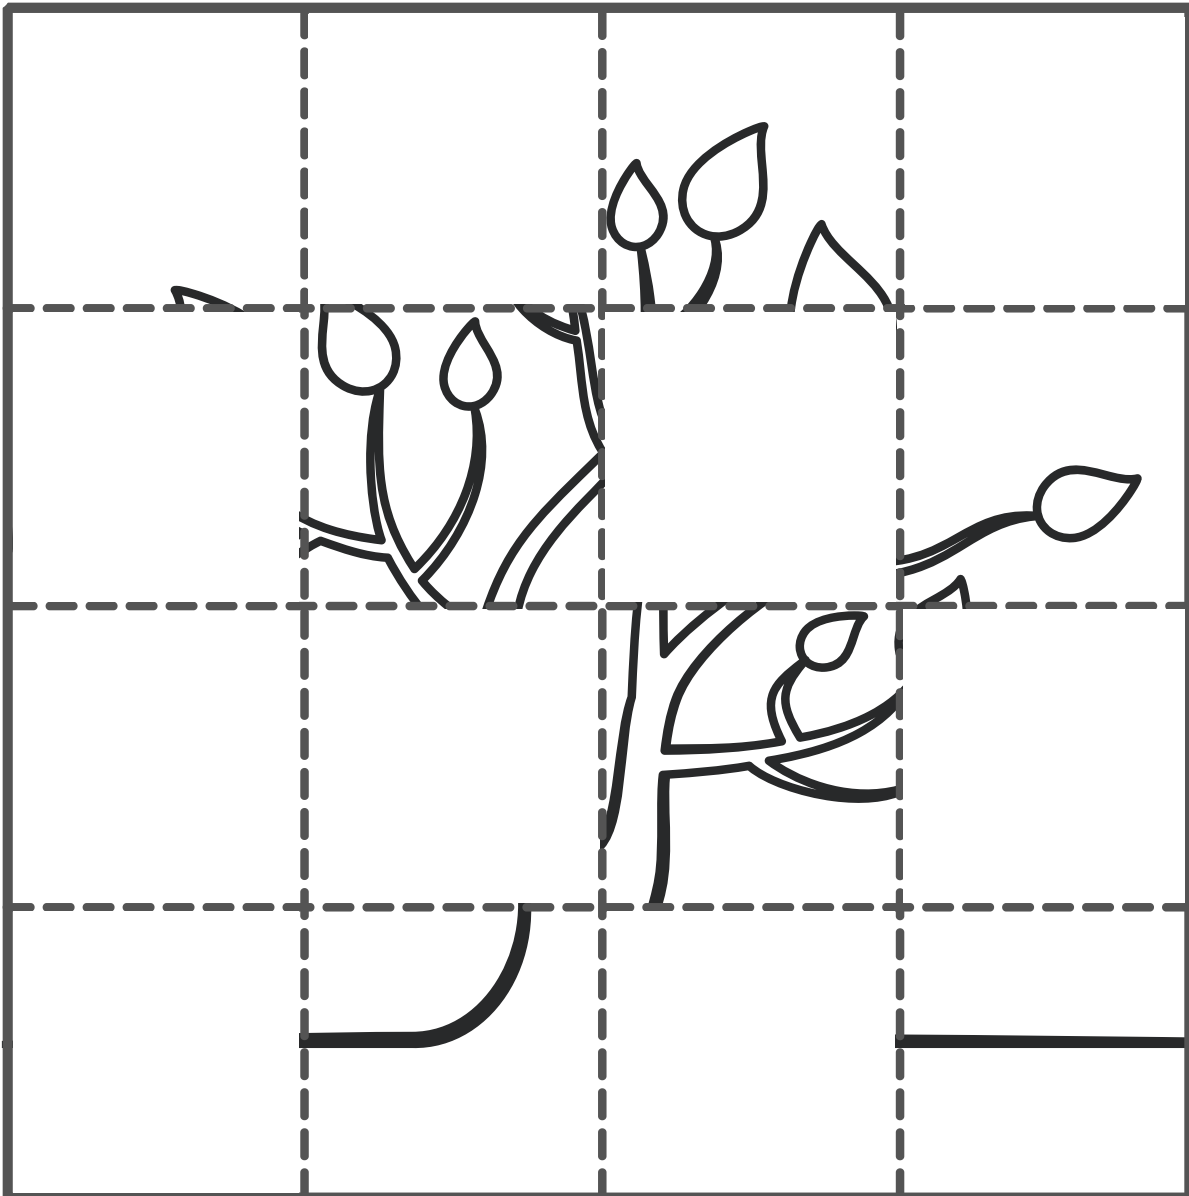

Draw or write, in the figs below, different ways you can also bear fruit (showing God's love to others).

Holy Tuesday

Through the parable of the 10 virgins, the Lord tells us "Watch therefor, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming." It is important to take time this week and reflect on our actions and relationship with God.

Read the prompts below and respond by filling each space provided with images and words that come into mind.

The best things that happened today:

Things I wish I can change about today:

I am proud of myself today because...

I think I still need to work on....

Match the verses from the New Testament that fulfill the prophecy in Isaiah 50:6.

The Prophecy
From Isaiah 50:6

The Event
(New Testament)

I gave My back to those who struck Me,

Then they took the staff and struck Him on the head repeatedly.
Matthew 27:30

And My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard;

Then they spit in His face.
Matthew 26:67

I did not hide My face from shame and spitting. Isaiah 50:6

The men who were holding Jesus began to mock Him and beat Him. Luke 22:63
